

Bipolar creativity through the ages

marliesterborg@gmail.com

Contents

1. Mood swing and creativity through the ages

2 Aristotle's bipolar melancholy, symptoms and treatment

- 2.1. The scope of melancholy genius
- 2.2. Aristotle's 'Bipolar' melancholy
- 2.3. Characteristics of melancholy
- 2.4. Melancholy heroes – Ajax and Bellephoron
- 2.5. The manic Heracles
- 2.6. Melaina cholè and genius
- 2.7. Treatment: medication and counter-behaviour
- 2.8. Tragedies as therapy
- 2.9. Cassandra – tragedy of rejected talent
- 2.10. Aristotle's inheritance

3. Icons of bipolar creativity

- 3.1. Famous bipolars
- 3.2. Vincent van Gogh
- 3.3. Virginia Woolf
- 3.4. Winston Churchill

Intermezzo: characteristics of high and low mood

4. Swinging from depression to mania

- 4.1. Melancholy Poets from ages past
- 4.2. The melancholy club
- 4.3. Light depression - All is vanity
- 4.4. Deep depression - Relinquish all hope!
- 4.5. Escape from depression - Prophet Arise!
- 4.6. Hypomania –rising on strong wings
- 4.7. Mania - The stars my father promised me!
- 4.8. Accepting mood swing – A time for every season
- 4.9. Wrestling sense from non – sense

Appendix - Aristotle On Melancholy, Problemata xxx.i